

Story Weaving Workshop

- 1) Our stories are connected to those who came before us—woven together with those who live amongst us. Identify a few individuals whose stories are woven into yours, impacting your life and identity.

Ideas include: parents, partners, children, artists, ancestors, friends, authors, teachers, etc.

- 2) Consider the tangible impact these individuals have had on your story. In other words, what cultural artifacts have you been gifted by this community?

Ideas include: physical places, traditions, dances, mantras, recipes, hairstyles, et
